

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the QA Specialist position advertised on LinkedIn. With a strong educational background in Computer Science, over 1 year of hands-on experience in software engineering, and proficiency in both English and Chinese, I am confident that my skills and knowledge fit perfectly for this role.

I am currently in the last semester of my computer science degree from the University of Manitoba, providing me with a solid foundation in the field. During my academic, I have gained valuable experience that includes UI testing using Cypress, a deep understanding of the web development process, and proficiency in SQL for writing queries. These experiences have equipped me with the technical skills necessary to excel in your dynamic work environment.

Thank you for considering my application, and I look forward to the opportunity to discuss my qualifications in further detail.
